Simplify, Scale & Modernize EDI-as-a-Service with OSI Digital + Boomi

As enterprises expand and trading partner networks grow, managing traditional EDI systems becomes a mounting challenge. Legacy on premises solutions and VAN providers often require significant technical expertise, ongoing maintenance, and manual intervention—creating bottlenecks, errors, and operational risk. Organizations need a simpler, scalable approach that keeps business moving without the constant EDI headaches.

Introducing OSI Digital's EDI as a Service (EDIaaS) – a fully managed, cloud native solution powered by Boomi's industry-leading iPaaS. EDIaaS removes the complexity of daily EDI operations, allowing your teams to focus on growth while OSI handles everything from trading partner onboarding and process development to proactive monitoring and ongoing support.

Built for plug and play simplicity, OSI's Boomi EDIaaS delivers unmatched scalability, agility, and visibility. Leveraging Boomi Integration, Boomi B2B/EDI, Boomi Flow, and OSI accelerators like our EDI Hospital, organizations gain faster partner onboarding, real-time monitoring, and a future-ready foundation for EDI and API-driven B2B interactions.

For companies moving off legacy on premises systems or migrating from traditional VAN providers such as SPS Commerce or OpenText, OSI's Boomi EDIaaS provides a proven, low-risk modernization path. Our migration methodology ensures minimal disruption, rapid data mapping, and seamless continuity—unlocking a more agile, cloud-connected trading ecosystem.
